

Grandma's Garden

Read the story. Then answer the questions.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Every summer, Jake visited his grandma's house. Her backyard had the most beautiful garden he had ever seen. There were red tomatoes, yellow sunflowers, and green beans growing in neat rows. Grandma taught Jake how to pull weeds and water the plants gently. One morning, they picked a basket full of vegetables together. That evening, Grandma cooked a delicious soup using the vegetables they had picked. Jake thought it was the best soup he had ever tasted.

1. When did Jake visit his grandma?

- ☐ A. Every winter
- ☐ B. Every summer
- ☐ C. Every weekend

2. What grew in the garden?

- ☐ A. Tomatoes, sunflowers, and beans
- ☐ B. Only roses
- ☐ C. Apples and oranges

3. What did Grandma teach Jake to do?

- ☐ A. Ride a bike
- ☐ B. Pull weeds and water plants
- ☐ C. Bake bread

4. What did Grandma make with the vegetables?

- ☐ A. A salad
- ☐ B. A pie
- ☐ C. A soup

5. Why do you think the soup tasted so good to Jake? Write your answer.

Answer Key

1. B. Every summer
2. A. Tomatoes, sunflowers, and beans
3. B. Pull weeds and water plants
4. C. A soup
5. (Sample) Because he helped pick the vegetables himself, which made it special.